

Mike Elbreidi

Introducing our New Account Manager, Edmonton

Announcing: Mike Elbreidi, our new Account Manager for Northern Alberta.

Please join us in welcoming Mike Elbreidi to the Noramco Edmonton sales team, effective September 11th.

Mike studied Business Administration at Northern Alberta Institute of Technology (NAIT), as well as Occupational Health and Safety at the University of Alberta. He has sales experience in multiple industries, but most recently over 4 years in electrical wire and cable distribution here in Edmonton.

In his new role, Mike will work with new and existing electrical contractors in the Northern Alberta region to grow customer relationships and help contribute to our growing sales team through his passion for sales and customer-centric approach.

Congratulations, Mike, welcome to Noramco Edmonton and your new Account Manager role!
