

Lloyd Johnson

Introducing our New Account Manager in Hamilton

Announcing: Lloyd Johnson, our new Account Manager in Hamilton.

Please join us in welcoming Lloyd Johnson as our new Account Manager in Hamilton. Lloyd started with Noramco on October 23rd and is well versed in our industry, having twenty plus years of experience in electrical distribution.

Lloyd is an excellent communicator with strong interpersonal skills and prides himself on consistently accomplishing business objectives while exceeding customer expectations. He studied Business Administration at George Brown College and has successfully held management positions with an electrical distributor for nearly two decades.

In his new role, Lloyd will work with the Hamilton team to continue building existing customer relationships and expanding the business in Southern Ontario.

Welcome to Noramco Lloyd, and your new Account Manager role!