

Craig Coburn

Introducing our New Account Manager in St. Laurent

Announcing: Craig Coburn as Account Manager in St. Laurent.

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Craig Coburn as our New Account Manager in our St. Laurent location as of May 21st, 2024.

Craig brings a wealth of experience to the table, blending insights from both within and beyond our industry. Through the development of strong customer relationships, tangible implementation of strategies, and supportive team leadership, he has repeatedly demonstrated his ability to identify growth potential and maximize top line revenues. His eagerness to learn new products and services along with his contagious energy positions him for success as he transitions to his new role with the Noramco, Eastern Canada team.

Congratulations, Craig, on joining the Noramco team as a new Account Manager — we're excited to have you aboard!
