Introducing our New Business Centre Manager for Southern Alberta

Announcing: Tyler Stephenson as Business Centre Manager for Southern Alberta.

Please join us in welcoming Tyler Stephenson as our new Business Centre Manager for Southern Alberta.

Tyler is an accomplished business leader and sales professional with over a decade of management experience and B2B sales within the electrical and HVAC distribution industries. He has a proven track record of delivering significant sales and margin growth while pinpointing avenues for substantial cost savings. His adeptness for forging robust, meaningful, and enduring relationships with suppliers, customers, and colleagues will be an invaluable asset as he transitions into his new role with us.

Tyler will work closely with the Calgary team to advance the development of our existing business in Southern Alberta while he extends our reach into emerging markets.

Congratulations Tyler, and a warm welcome to the Noramco team as you step into your new role as Business Centre Manager for Southern Alberta!
