

Announcing: Emily Davison as Account Manager for Noramco London

Please join us in welcoming Emily Davison as our new Account Manager for Commercial and Industrial in London!

Emily brings a wealth of experience from the electrical wholesale industry in Australia, where she has excelled in sales, customer relationship management, and operations. She has consistently surpassed targets and driven business success throughout her career, demonstrating her adaptability and commitment to building strong relationships with clients and colleagues.

Congratulations, Emily! We're thrilled to welcome you to the Noramco team and to your new role as Account Manager!